

Community Health &
Advocacy
Talks

CHAT is a monthly series of talks around matters that are important in health and healthcare delivery.

Brought to you by:

University of Minnesota North Memorial
Family Medicine Residency Program and Family Medicine Interest Group

Urban Research and Outreach-
Engagement Center

2001 Plymouth Ave N.
Minneapolis, MN 55411

Disproportionality

How racial bias in the Child Protection Services
impacts black families

a talk given by

Kelis Houston

Founder of Village Arms, a nonprofit that works with black families impacted by Child Protection Services.

March 12, 2019
5:30 PM - 7:30 PM
2001 Plymouth Ave N

